§8 Personal data processing and exercising of rights under GDPR

1. In connection with undertaking steps aimed at concluding the Agreement, and in the case of conclusion of the Agreement – in order to perform the said Agreement and provide Services under this Agreement, the Bank processes the personal data. Personal data processing is carried out according to the law, in particular according to GDPR regulations. The Bank processes only personal data which are necessary for performance of the Agreement at the Payer's request, including Payment transaction, according to the payment method selected by the Payer which is laid down in the Terms and Conditions. Therefore, in order to carry out the Payment transaction the bank shall process in particular identification and financial data (parameters of the Payment transaction, including: transaction amount, transaction title). If the Payer wants to file a complaint and receive a reply by post, the Bank shall process the first and last name as well as the address of the Payer. Detailed information regarding personal data processing can be found in §7 of the Terms and Conditions.
2. In order to exercise the rights under GDPR, which are mentioned in § 7 of these Terms and Conditions, you should provide a brief description of the request and in order to enable identification and verification at least: a number of the Payment transaction and e-mail address provided while ordering a Payment transaction. Providing of a correspondence address (e.g. address of the residence) and first and last name is required in the event when a natural person would like to receive a reply by postal services.
3. Bank without undue delay – and in any event within one month from the receipt of the request – shall provide the natural person with information about activities undertaken in connection with the request pursuant to Articles 15–22 of GDPR. If necessary, this deadline may be extended for another two months due to the complicated nature of the request or number of requests. Within one month after the receipt of the request, the Bank shall notify a natural person about such an extension of the deadline while providing the reasons of the delay.

4. The Bank informs that if the requests are clearly unjustified or excessive, in particular due to their continuous nature, the Bank may:
 - a) charge a reasonable fee, including administrative costs of providing information, carrying out communication or undertaking requested actions; or
 - b) refuse undertaking of such actions in connection with the request.
5. The Bank informs that if – based on the data in the possession of the Bank – there are justified doubts regarding an identity of the natural person filing the request, the Bank may request additional information indispensable for confirming the identity of the data subject. A request to provide additional data cannot violate the provisions of the Article 11 of GDPR.
6. If the request is sent from a different address than the one provided by the Payer during the initiation of the Payment transaction, the Bank – in order to confirm the identity – may send a request for confirming filing of a request to the e-mail address provided during the Payment transaction, e.g. in the case of requesting access to personal data. If no confirmation is sent within the set deadline, the Bank is entitled to assume that a given person has not been identified.

§9 Cookie files located in the Payment Gateway
